

Bacteriology Dept.

October 7, 1957

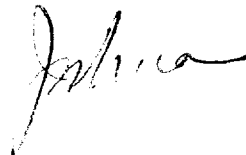

Dear Luca:

While still waiting to hear from you, I enclose a more detailed plan for our trip, as now scheduled.

The main point is our arrival in Italy on Nov. 21 (subject to your wishes). We would like to leave our time in Italy entirely in your hands, but have asked the booking direct from Rome to Milan as a protective formality.

We should leave not later than the 28th, but can make different arrangements if that week is inconvenient for you.

Arrivederci

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to be 'John' or similar, written in a cursive style.